

Openings

07/16/2010

Pullman has announced the opening of two new hotels in Asia

Pullman has announced the signing of two new management contracts in Asia: Pullman Kuala Lumpur Bangsar and Pullman Saigon Centre.

Pullman Kuala Lumpur Bangsar

The hotel, located in downtown Kuala Lumpur, the capital of Malaysia, will open in 2011.

It will be the brand's third hotel for Malaysia, following the Pullman Putrajaya and Pullman Kuching, and will be the largest in South East Asia, with 500 rooms, three restaurants, two bars and extensive meeting facilities.

The hotel will enjoy a prime location, near the Menara Telekom and the Mid Valley Megamall, ten minutes by express train from Kuala Lumpur International Airport.

Pullman Saigon Centre

Located right in the centre of Ho Chi Minh in District One on Tran Hung Dao, the hotel will open in 2013. The newly built hotel with contemporary architecture will have 300 rooms.

In addition to 1,500 m² of ballroom and meeting facilities, the hotel will also comprise two restaurants, a bar, an outdoor swimming pool and a fitness centre.

The Pullman network in Asia Pacific

The Pullman network has expanded to 16 hotels today in the Asia Pacific region, with a further 24 committed to development.

To find out more about Pullman