

Accor, a leader in hotels and services

For more than 40 years, Accor has constantly reinvented its businesses to keep pace with the world around it, with the goal of providing innovative, high-quality products to hotel and Services customers.

Backed by powerful, highly respected brands, its employees help create lasting interpersonal relationships and deploy their unique skills to develop and deliver solutions that create wellness.

Every day, Accor is pleased to:

- Provide travelers with the accommodation and dining solution best suited to their needs and assure them of the highest quality service.
- Create services for our companies and public institutions that support their development, enhance their performance and simplify the daily lives of employees and constituents.

More than

150,000 employees around the world

4,100 hotels

Nearly 500,000 rooms

33 million services users

100 countries

At Accor you will receive a personalised welcome through a programme called "Welcome to Accor".